

Spelling List
be bee
blue blew
bear bare flour flower
one won

Session 1

Matching pairs:

Can you find the opposite homophone for each picture?

Homophone sentences:

Can you decide which homophone should be placed in each sentence, so it makes sense?

The little girl _____ the candles out.

The _____ had yellow petals.

I can see the _____ sky.

The boy ran to the finish line and _____ the race, he was number _____.

The _____ landed on a _____.

I could not _____ to watch my dog pierce my favourite ball.

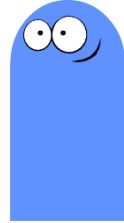

When we bake cakes we use _____, sugar and eggs.

Spelling List
be
bee
blue
blew
bear
bare flour
flower
one
won

Session 1

Matching pairs:

Can you find the opposite homophone for each picture? Bare, blew, flour, be, one

Homophone sentences:

Can you decide which homophone should be placed in each sentence, so it makes sense?

The little girl blew the candles out.

The flower had yellow petals.

I can see the blue sky.

The boy ran to the finish line and won the race, he was number one.

The bee landed on a flower.

I could not bare to watch my dog pierce my favourite ball.

When we bake cakes, we use flour, sugar and eggs.