

Monday 11th May

English

They pulled all the scrubbing brushes
out of the cupboard.

They emptied the
cleaning powder
on the floor.

They got into the pedal bin and threw out all the potato peelings. And they tipped a saucepan of soup all over the kitchen floor.

When Hilda came home she found the most appalling mess. There were brushes and potato peelings all over the floor.

And her soup!

Hilda banged the saucepan
on top of the stove and shouted, "Great grief!
How long can I put up
with these dreadful
little monkeys?"

Tim and Sam and Lulu looked at her with their big round eyes and said nothing.

The next morning Hilda took her basket and went out to buy a tin of soup.

"And be absolutely sure that you are good while I'm away," she said.

When she had gone the three little monkeys soon began to feel bored, so they crept up the stairs and into the bathroom to see what they could find to play with.

Activity

In today's session... we're going to write another paragraph about what the monkeys did next!

They're heading into the bathroom to see what they can play with.

Think about what is in the bathroom and what trouble the monkeys might get into.

I have given you my kitchen model again to help you with the structure but this time try and think of your own ideas of what they might be doing in the bathroom.

Example

When she had gone the three little monkeys soon began to feel bored, so they went into the kitchen to see what they could find to play with.

They opened all the drawers and pulled out the cutlery. Shiny spoons scattered across the floor. Tim pulled all the kitchen roll and used it to wrap Lulu up like a mummy. They ate all the ripe bananas in the fruit bowl and threw the skins into the sink.

Sam excitedly opened the fridge and cracked all the eggs over the tiled walls, stomping on the broken shells.
