Soon her
She went

"This is dreadful," said Hilda, and she gave way to despair. The tears rolled down her cheeks. She tried to dab them with her handkerchief, but there were still lots that dripped onto the floor.

Soon her handkerchief was soaking wet.
She went to the cupboard to get a dry one.

And there were Tim
and Sam and Lulu.

They looked at her with their big round eyes and said nothing.

"Oh my goodness," said Hilda.
"You naughty little monkeys."

That night Hilda went up the stairs to bed with a happy heart.

And as she slid between the sheets she discovered
all the spoons and forks from the kitchen and three tins of sardines in tomato sauce.

But that is the sort of thing you have to expect if you have three little monkeys.

The end.

So even though the monkeys were cheeky Hilda still loved them!

Lets have a look at the story.

Fill in the rest of story table. I finished the beginning so you need to carry on the middle and end. Write out what happened in each section as short sentences and any key words you remember.
