

SPaG Revision Boardbusters: Questions and Answers

- P What P is shown in all three of these sentences?
parenthesis
- S What S is highlighted in these sentences?
subject
- V What V is highlighted in these sentences?
verb
- F What F is the tone of voice that this letter is written in?
formal
- A What A represents a word that means the opposite?
antonym
- H What H is missing from the highlighted words?
hyphen
- SC What SC is a piece of punctuation that could be used to separate the two independent clauses in each sentence?
semi-colon
- N What N is highlighted in these sentences?
noun
- A What A is highlighted in these sentences?
adjective
- MC What MC is highlighted in these sentences?
main clause
- S What S is shown by the examples below?
synonym
- C What C are these apostrophes being used for?
contraction
- P What P is the voice of these sentences?
passive
- I What I is the tone of voice this letter is written in?
informal
- D What D is highlighted in these sentences?
determiner
- A What A is the voice of these sentences?
active

What P is highlighted in these sentences?

preposition

What A is highlighted in these sentences?

adverb

What C is a piece of punctuation that is missing from each of these sentences?

colon

What A is highlighted in these sentences?

article

What PP is the tense these sentences are written in?

past progressive

What SC is highlighted in these sentences?

subordinate clause

What P is highlighted in these sentences?

pronoun

What RC is highlighted in these sentences?

relative clause

What P is the type of apostrophe shown in these sentences?

possessive