Today's Task: Create your superhero

In the Kid Normal book, the superpowers each character has are bizarre (not your average flying and super strength), but all of them are useful in some way.

Listen to the ideas on the video then create your own character. Draw a picture of your character and write a description of them, including their superpower. Remember they need a name!

G	Character description
A	Children aged? (you decide)
P	To inform of the character's appearance, personality and superpowers, whilst entertaining the reader
