

Using 'and' to join clauses

Here are some sentences about Jake and his sister, Claire, at the park. Draw lines to match the two parts of each sentence using 'and'.

The first one has been done for you.

Mum went shopping and	eat lots of food.
Claire has made the cake and	flying through the sky.
The birds were flapping their wings and	bought some bread for sandwiches.
Their friends are coming and	wagging his tail.
The dog was running and	she has put jam in the middle.
Jake will drink fizzy pop and	they will play lots of games.

Now write your own sentences about going to a park using 'and' to join information together.

E.g. - I went to the park and played on the swings.
