

Wednesday Practise Activities. ALL

Green activity – Children read the two syllables for each word separately and then join them together to read. Can they clap the syllables for each one?
(focusing on two syllable words)

sand	pit
melt	ing
desk	top
wind	mill
pond	weed
sham	poo

Amber activity: How many syllables? Children read the words and segment them into syllables- how many do they each have? (focus on 1, 2 and 3 syllables)

hand

handstand

softest

children

banana

cabinet

Amber answers:

Hand- one syllable

Handstand- two syllables- hand stand

Softest- two syllables- soft est

Children- two syllables- chil dren

Banana- three syllables- ba na na

Cabinet- three syllables- ca bi net

Red activity: How many syllables? Children read the words and segment them into syllables- how many do they each have? (focus on 1, 2 and 3 syllables)

lunchbox

sandwich

difficult

electric

television

watermelon

Red answers

Lunchbox- two- lunch box

Sandwich- two- sand wich

Difficult- three- diff i cult

Television- four- te le vi sion

Watermelon- four- wa ter mel on