

Wednesday

Today you are going to write your rewrite of chapter 24. You can include the same speech that is in the chapter, or if you prefer you can change the words as long as they have the same meaning.

Remember

- First person as either Bryce or Edward (you chose this yesterday)
- Past tense
- When using speech remember all the rules (watch the song here- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uoE9ET6Ctal>)
- Tell me how your character is feeling and why.
- Use your ideas from yesterday to help you

Your teachers would love to see what you wrote for this chapter. It might even be better than the chapter in the book!!
