

Wednesday- retrieval

1. Read the non-fiction text about opossums again.
2. Answer the retrieval questions below. Remember to highlight words in the question that will help you find the answers in the text.

1. Find and copy one word from the first paragraph that means pouched mammal.
2. How tiny can the baby opossums be?
3. How many babies may the opossum give birth to in a litter?
4. Name two things an opossum may raid.
5. Opossums will “play possum” when threatened by what 3 animals?
6. What do they do with their eyes when “playing possum”?
7. True or false: Opossums are excellent tree climbers.
8. What part of their body helps them dig into bark on a tree?
9. True or false: Opossums are nocturnal.
10. How do they find food?	