

Thursday

Tomorrow you are going to write a description of one of the dolls in the shop with Edward. This could be a traditional china doll or a china animal like Edward.

To prepare for your writing, today you are going to create your character. On a piece of paper draw your doll or animal.

Then, complete the table below. You do not need to write in full sentences today, you are just making notes. Use a thesaurus to improve your vocabulary.
