

Friday

Today you are going to write about your description of your china doll/ china animal. Use your notes from yesterday.

You can either choose to do it as:

- Descriptive sentences about your doll/ animal in 3rd person
- Write in paragraphs and in 3rd person as a narrator
- Write in paragraphs and 1st person as Edward

Look over the short character description examples and use the sentence openers word mat for some ideas of how you can vary your sentences.

Remember:

- Write in either 1st or 3rd person and stick to it!
- Write in past tense
- Punctuation- don't do super long sentences!
- Use exciting vocabulary to keep the reader interested

We'd love to see what you've come up with!
