

Have a go at these activities. Any words that you are unfamiliar with, look them up on google or using a dictionary at home.

1a. Tick to show which prefix could be added to these root words.

Root word	super-	anti-	auto- freeze
star hero

1b. Tick to show which prefix could be added to these root words.

Root word	auto-	super-	anti- social mobile body

5a. Tick to show which prefix could be added to these root words.

Root word	super-	anti-	auto-
social market pilot

5b. Tick to show which prefix could be added to these root words.

Root word	auto-	super-	anti- human correct bacterial

5a. Use each prefix once to complete the sentences below.

- I have noticed that ____ correct has spelt words incorrectly many times.
- The children use ____ bacterial handwash at lunch time.
- "Imagine a jet that could travel at ____ sonic speeds!" said Captain Tron.

▲

5b. Use each prefix once to complete the sentences below.

- Children celebrated ____ bullying week last November.
- When he was younger, Alfie had an interest in reading ____ hero comics.
- Newsreaders are very experienced at reading their words on an ____ cue.

▲

2a. Use each prefix once to complete the sentences below.

auto

super

anti

- A. I believe that everybody should have their own favourite ____hero.
- B. To warm up, we run around the school field in an ____clockwise direction.
- C. Maeve wanted to get Jed Sedman's ____graph after the concert.

2b. Use each prefix once to complete the sentences below.

super

anti

auto

- A. Charlene doesn't enjoy talking to people as she is ____social.
- B. Diamond is a young ____star who is recognised around the world.
- C. Andrew Merry has just released his new ____biography.

8a. Circle all the prefixes in the sentence below.

The superhero convention was a great success and the car park was full of automobiles.

8a. Circle all the prefixes in the sentence below.

Scientists eagerly await a report on a supersonic rocket that can use antigravity technology.

12a. Circle all the prefixes in the sentence below.

The supersize fruits were supposed to be weighed separately, however, the automatic machine had been damaged so a set of scales were used.

12b. Circle all the prefixes in the sentence below.

Young children are often given a course of antibiotics and require constant supervision when they contract a serious illness.