

Thursday 4th June

English

Then, just as he was about to leave, Syd heard Granddad calling.

“Ah, there you are!” said Granddad.
“There’s something I want you to see.”

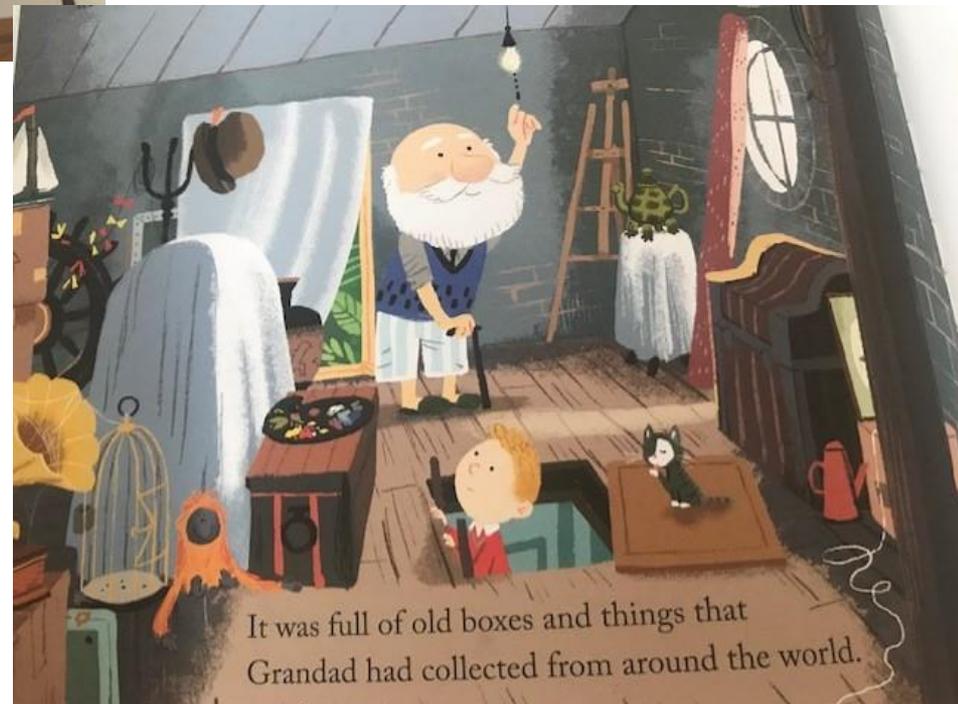

Then, just as he was about to leave, Syd heard Granddad calling.

“Ah, there you are!” said Granddad.

“There’s something I want you to see.”

Syd carefully climbed up the ladder. He had never been in Granddad’s attic before. It was full of old boxes and things that Granddad had collected from around the world.

It was full of old boxes and things that Granddad had collected from around the world.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/z8x6cj6/articles/zxvcrdm>

Watch the video about commas in a list.

Commas separate the items in your list apart from the last item when you use and.

For example-

I will need sugar, milk, hot water and a tea bag.

Look at the items in the attic.

Write sentences using commas in a list describing the objects you can see.

Challenge- add adjectives to make your sentences more detailed.

Example-

In Grandad's attic there was an ancient chest, a knotted kite and a precious Greek vase.