Today, write your beginning to the story. Create an atmosphere you think is fitting of what you have heard. There is no right or wrong here, this is your creation based on what you have listened to so far. What happens at the beginning of the story?

G	Descriptive Narrative (genre you think fits the audio from the video)
A	Dependent on the genre you choose. E.g. Thriller may be for older children and/or adults. Comedy for younger children
P	To introduce the story by <ul style="list-style-type: none">• setting the mood of the writing• introducing a little bit of the character• hinting at the nature of the rest of the story.
