

Wednesday

Tomorrow, you are going to be able to read the final chapter in the Edward Tulane book. Today you are going to make 3 separate predictions of what you think is going to happen.

In each prediction you need to include:

- What happens and why do you think this will happen (make sure it fits nicely with the rest of the story).
- Who (if there are any) are the new characters in the final chapter, or are there any returning characters?
- How does Edward feel about it?

Good luck with your predictions!
