

Thursday

After you have read the final chapter (chapter 27) you can see if your predictions from yesterday were correct.

Tomorrow, you are going to put yourself in Abilene's shoes and do some acting! Today you are going to gather some ideas about how Abilene is feeling at the end of the book.

1. Think of all the different emotions she would be feeling and try and think of different reasons for these.
2. What has happened to her in her life since losing Edward overboard all those years ago.
3. How is she going to treat Edward when they get home?
4. Is Edward going to stay as her china rabbit or will she let her daughter have him?

These don't need to be written in full sentences as you are just gathering ideas for tomorrow.
