1. Why do you think the author has decided to put quotes from famous people on the first page?	They all talk about change and improving the world. This will be to do with what is in the book.
2. Why has the author put Hope's email address in bold?	I think this is in bold because it shows it is different from the story and it is important.
3. Do you think Hope dislikes being the middle child? (if you are the middle child do you agree?!)	Yes. Says it's the worst place to be because if you are the eldest you can stay up late, get more pocket money and have the biggest room. If you're the youngest people think you're cute and you can get away with everything.
