The Gruffalo has two large, curved horns at the top of his head. He has dark, evil, blue eyes and black teeth. The Gruffalo has a sharp, pointy prickle at the end of his wet nose. Running all down his back are strange lumps that look like poisonous warts. His claws are smooth as though he has scratched bark from a tree to file them down. His tongue is long and black which trails on the floor. His fur feels as soft as a cotton wool but it is matted and tangled. He has knobby knees and turned out toes. His feet are as small as a mouse as he scatters through the forest. The animals are scared of him because he is so terrifyingly large.
