Re-read the story to develop and improve fluency, don't forget to use your voices that you introduced yesterday.

Use the pictures in your story to inspire you to create your own story. You could write down your story or just tell it verbally to someone who enjoys listening to stories.

- You could make the chocolate cake your home. What would it be like to live in a chocolate cake?
- You could create a machine that couldn't fly and the flying animals could help you.
- You could make the character in the story giant or the animals really tiny.
