

Year 2
Adverbs—Session 3

Guess the Adverbs

Look at the picture below can you identify all of the adverbs.
Create a story using the picture and the adverbs that you have identified.

Change the adverb, change the mood, change the meaning

Look at the sentences below your challenge is to change these sentences so that they become negative instead of positive.
Look at the example below to help!

Positive: The man watched proudly as the child balanced skilfully on the edge of the pool.

Negative: The man watched fearfully as the child balanced cautiously on the edge of the pool.

1. The child paddled happily watching the water flow lazily over the dam.
2. Elif ran slowly along the beach as the waves rolled gently in.
3. The boy listened hopefully as the footsteps came gracefully closer.
4. The women waited patiently for the number 59 to arrive regularly.

Year 2
Adverbs—Session 3

Guess the Adverbs

Look at the picture below can you identify all of the adverbs.

Story will vary.

Change the adverb, change the mood, change the meaning

Look at the sentences below your challenge is to change these sentences so that they become negative instead of positive.

Look at the example below to help!

Answers will vary.

Positive: The man watched proudly as the child balanced skilfully on the edge of the pool.

Negative: The man watched fearfully as the child balanced cautiously on the edge of the pool.

1. The child paddled nervously watching the water flow rapidly over the dam.
2. Elif ran quickly along the beach as the waves rolled vigorously in.
3. The boy listened cautiously as the footsteps came frantically closer.
4. The women waited crossly for the number 59 to arrive hourly.