Task: This character seems lonely so let's write him a lonely hearts advert!

G	Dating profile
A	Potential dates
P	To inform others about yourself and persuade them to get to know you

Dating profile:

- What information do potential dates need to know about you?
- Start with a short tag line, like a headline. E.G. Interesting man seeking friendly, kind and understanding partner
- Be positive!
- How honest are you going to be (about the whole upside-down thing)?
- Keep it brief. No one wants to read an essay so keep it short but make every word count!
- Share some of your personality and interests
