

Friday

In your SPaG you have been looking at inverted commas and direct speech. Today you are going to write a conversation between Jimmy and Treehouse once Jimmy finds him in the city.

Here is a link to our inverted commas song: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uoE9ET6CtaI>

Have a watch of that to remind you of the rules for writing speech.

Give yourself 2 minutes to come up with alternative words for said.....GO!

Example start of conversation

"I can't believe you're here," whispered Jimmy, looking up at his longest friend, "how did you find me?"

Creaking forward to see Jimmy better, Treehouse responded "Well, I couldn't stay in the countryside without you. Despite my leaves, my branches were feeling empty without you in them."
