

Monday – 13th July 2020

This week we are going to access our reading books online.

You will need your Oxford Owl username and password.

Please choose one of the following books to read. Please chose a book suitable to your level of reading. You will use this book all week to complete the activities.

Tom, Dad and Colin – https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/api/digital_books/1448.html

The Frog Prince – https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/api/digital_books/1403.html

East of the Sun, West of the Moon -
https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/api/digital_books/1251.html

Have a look at the front cover, reading the title and looking at the pictures. Discuss what you think this book might be about and what clues there are to support your predication.

Read the book aloud. If you come to words that are unfamiliar break them down into their sounds and blend them together. Re-read the sentences without sounding out to build your fluency.

Once you have read the story discuss if you were correct or not about your predication

Tom, Dad and Colin – https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/api/digital_books/1448.html

The Frog Prince – https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/api/digital_books/1403.html

East of the Sun, West of the Moon -
https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/api/digital_books/1251.html

Re-read the story to develop and improve fluency. Pay attention to the punctuation throughout the story.

What punctuation is used?

Why is it used?

What effect does it have on the way you read the story?

Use expression as you read to show you have looked and understood the punctuation.

Pick a page in the story and study the picture for 5 minutes. Close the book and draw the picture using as much detail as you can remember. When you have finished open the book and check if you missed any of the details. Add them in to make your picture complete.

East of the Sun, West of the Moon -

https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/api/digital_books/1251.html

Re-read the story to develop and improve fluency. Each story uses speech either in the text or in speech bubbles (or both). As you read the story decide which character is talking and create a voice for that character. Every time the character talks use your created voice to give expression to your reading.

You could ask an adult or big brother/sister to help create different voices.
