Monday 21st September 2020

Without looking back at your list, can you remember the words which go with these definitions?

Advise or suggest; put forward as being suitable

A group of people appointed for a specific function

Closely connected or appropriate

A thing that provides resistance, delay or obstruction to something or someone

Causing great damage

A person who serves in the army

A strong, regular repeated pattern of movement or sound

A line or sequence of people or vehicles awaiting their turn

Needed to be done, achieved, or present; essential

Strange or unfamiliar

Your second task is to write a sentence containing each spelling. Make sure you are spelling the words correctly. I have included the spelling list on the next page.
