

Set 1 (11 words)	Set 2 (20 words)	Set 3 (20 words)	sk Set 4 (20 words)	sk Set 5 (20 words) king	kill	kebab	skin	skinny kitten	kick	kidney	sky	skittles Kipper	kiss	kitted	skirt	skewbald keep	key	kilo	skill	skimming kind	keen	kidneys	skid	skinflint Kit	kid	kennels	skim	skittered skipped	kilt	kilted	skip	skittish kite	kissed	kidded	skimp	skivvy kitchen	kip	kidding	sketch	skylark skidding	keel	kindly	skipped	skywrite ketchup	Kent	kibbutz	sketched	skydive 11 words so far	kiln	kilos	skimmed	skyscraper killed	kindle	skilled	skibobber kettle	kennel	skewed	skeleton kidnap	kind-hearted	unskilled	skinniest kernel	kidnapper	skirmish	skeletal kidnapped	kerfuffle	skitter	skedaddle kinship	handkerchief	skittle	skinnier kiwi	kick-started	skimpy	skirmishes kick-off	kedgerees	skirting	semi-skilled 31 words so far	51 words so far	71 words so far	91 words so far

Read the story then draw the picture.

The king had lost his little kitten, Kipper.

"I wanted to keep him safe," he cried. His kind son, Kit, skipped in with a lovely kite to make him feel better. The next moment, they heard a crash in the kitchen, rushed to have a look and saw the kitten skidding in the ketchup!

Practise writing.

Build your word power