Please see the information provided by the external providers for clubs that are not run by school, these are also offered on a first come first serve basis.

Dates: Clubs run by school staff will begin during the second week of HT1 (week beginning Monday 8th September). Bookings for clubs are made for the full autumn term. For clubs run by external providers, please refer to the information they have provided regarding start dates and booking periods.

Teacher-led clubs (marked with an asterisk *) will not begin until the week beginning Monday 8th September. Subsequently, these clubs will not run during the first or final week of each half term.

External providers: Any club that is underlined is not attended by a member of school staff. Children attending these clubs are not in the care of the school, and school policies do not apply to external providers. It is the responsibility of parents to ensure that contact details, medical information, and any required medication are provided to the external provider. Parents should also ensure they are satisfied with the club provider's policies and procedures. The school holds DBS clearance for these providers.

Cancellation: Please do not rely solely on clubs for childcare, as they may be cancelled at short notice due to staff absence or poor weather conditions.
