

Year 2
Adjectives: Session 5

Draw it

Read the character description very carefully.
Try and imagine what you might see.
Draw the character and see if you're right!

Mr Ogre is incredibly tall and has very broad shoulders.

His ears are pointed and stiff.

As well as being tall, he has a big belly.

For work, Mr Ogre repairs game consoles with hammers. He has to be strong, so he has muscles to help.

Mr Ogre wears no shoes because no shop sells shoes big enough to fit his feet.

Unfortunately, Mr Ogre was hit with the ugly stick when he was younger, so he has little eyes, a pig-nose and a tooth that pokes out from under his lip.

Mr Ogre only wears brown shorts. This means you can see his pea-green skin.

Character description

Now draw your own character and provide a character description.
Make sure you are particular with your adjectives!

Comment

In these four sentences I have made some silly choices.
Change my sentences and explain why.

The slim, thin, sleek, slender snake slid by.

The old goblin was old.

The wet water was flowing down the river.

The huge dog went through the tiny tunnel.

Year 2
Adjectives: Session 5

Draw it

Read the character description very carefully.
Try and imagine what you might see.
Draw the character and see if you're right!

Mr Ogre

Character description

Character description will vary.

Comment

In these four sentences I have made some silly choices.
Change my sentences and explain why.

Answers will vary.

The slim, thin, sleek, slender snake slid by.

Too many adjectives

The old goblin was old.

Used the same adjective to describe the goblin.

The wet water was flowing down the river.

Wet isn't a very good adjective to use to describe water.

The huge dog went through the tiny tunnel.

A huge dog wouldn't be able to fit through a tiny tunnel.